

Miss Wapello FFA/PRCA Rodeo 2010

July 14, 2010

Wapello, Iowa

Miss Wapello Rodeo Official Rules and Regulations

Each contestant must comply with all rules as outlined herein.

Contestant Eligibility - Each contestant in the Miss Wapello Rodeo Pageant shall:

- A. Be at least 19 years of age on January 1, 2010 and shall not have obtained the age of 25 on January 1, 2011.
- B. Not have been previously nor currently married and/or pregnant nor had a marriage annulled.
- C. Be a legal resident of Iowa.
- D. Not currently hold a state title of any other state pageant in the year of competition for MWR.
- E. Not have had a queen/princess or similar title removed for any reason.
- F. Have executed all consents and/or waivers of liability presented as conditions precedents to competition.
- G. Abide by all rules and regulations of the Miss Wapello Rodeo Pageant.

Loss of Title and Benefits - Subsequent to the MWR Pageant, any person being awarded the title of Miss Wapello Rodeo and/or otherwise becoming the successor thereto, shall not:

- A. Have previously married and/or be pregnant or had a marriage annulled nor will they marry or become pregnant.
 - B. Be charged with and/or determined to have committed any crime of moral turpitude.
- Upon occurrence of any of the above events, the title of MWR together with any and all benefits derived by such person, shall be forfeited and awarded to the next qualified runner-up.

Miss Wapello Rodeo Pageant Requirements

- A. All entry applications must be postmarked before July 5th, and accompanied by:
 - a. $25 entry fee made payable to "Wapello FFA" in the form of a check or money order.
 - b. Proof of birth date (birth certificate or baptismal certificate.) Please send a copy, not the original.
 - c. One color head and shoulder 5X7 vertical photograph. (no crowns or banners)
 - d. Signed waivers and release of photographic copyrights.
- B. If a potential contestant returns a check due to insufficient funds she will be held responsible for all fees associated with the collection of the monies.
- C. No title is required to enter the MWR Pageant. If contestant is a current title holder, no banners or crowns will be worn during the MWR Pageant.
- D. Contestants shall be qualified to ride and to provide their own horse for the pageant. Only one horse is allowed, and it is strongly encouraged that a contestant would compete on the horse she would continue to ride throughout her reign if she were to win the title. Contestants will be responsible for securing care for their horse during the pageant, as time will not allow for feeding or cleaning stalls.

- E. Contestants will be under the supervision of the MWR Pageant personnel and/or chaperones during the course of the pageant. Contestants will be responsible for transportation to and from pageant events.
- F. Parents and relatives of contestants are welcome to attend certain events at which the contestants will be present. However, after the pageant starts, contestants will have limited contact with parents and others during judged events.
- G. Video and cameras are allowed during the pageant, but their use shall not disrupt pageant activities. Precedence will be given to official pageant personnel for video and photography needs.
- H. Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities.
- I. Contestants to the MWR pageant are required to pay their own transportation to and from the pageant as well as lodging during the pageant.
- J. Pageant personnel shall not be responsible for lost or stolen articles; however, all necessary precautions will be taken to prevent loss.
- K. Drinking alcohol, drug use, smoking or the use of foul language will not be tolerated before, during or after the pageant and may result in the contestant being disqualified and/or any awards won being forfeited. A contestant's behavior is a direct reflection of her true personality and will be taken into account during all pageant activities. Behavior is also a reflection on the pageant itself.
- L. Contestants must be prompt for all activities including the submission of applications, waivers, photos and judged events or disqualification may occur.
- M. The newly crowned Miss Wapello Rodeo is required to ride in the grand entry and be available for rodeo duties on Saturday evening, as well as ride in the Chief Wapello Days parade on Saturday.
- N. Whoever shall be awarded the title of MWR will be responsible for taking care of all financial obligations while serving her reign.

In the event that Miss Wapello Rodeo marries or becomes disqualified due to infraction of the rules, the next qualified runner-up will automatically become Miss Wapello Rodeo .

Miss Wapello Rodeo Pageant Judging Guidelines

Miss Wapello Rodeo is judged in three main categories, all of which are equal: horsemanship, personality and appearance. In addition, the scores from a contestant's speech, photogenic quality, extemporaneous questions, interviews, introductions, fashion show presentation, etc. will be added in a forth and equal "other" category.

Judges

- A. Three judges will judge all the MWR Pageant. The same set of judges will judge all pageant categories.
- B. All scores will be totaled for each contestant each time they are judged.
- C. Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition. They should all have an awareness of correct western dress, they should be knowledgeable about the sport of professional rodeo, and they should be experienced western-type horsemen who are accustomed to judging horse events. Every attempt will be made to secure judges who are unfamiliar with contestants.
- D. Should a judge become incapacitated during the pageant, judging will continue with the remaining judges for the remainder of the pageant, or until the incapacitated judge can resume.

E. Upon the completion of each judging section, each judge will place his/her score sheets in a manila envelope, seal the envelope, and sign his/her name across the flap. The collection person will deliver the sealed envelope to the auditing individual or firm who compiles, in private, the scores.

Judged Events

A. Horsemanship -Each contestant will ride a horse in each of two go-rounds of horsemanship competition, which may include pattern work, rail work, flag presentation and queen run.

B. Prepared Speech - Each contestant is required to give a three-minute speech on Iowa or professional rodeo. The contestant with the highest total score in the speech competition will be recognized with a special award. Judging is based on content, delivery and the time allotted for presentation. Judges discretion will be used for speeches under or over three-minute time allotment. All speeches must be original to the contestant and memorized. No note cards or props are allowed.

C. Interviews - The judges will interview each contestant, and judges will have copies of the contestant applications. Questions asked will test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, professional rodeo, horsemanship and current events.

D. Extemporaneous Questions - questions will be asked of each contestant during pageant functions. They may relate to the sport of professional rodeo.

E. Modeling - A fashion show will be held to showcase the contestants appearance and personality.

F. Photogenic Quality - The judges will score the required 5X7 vertical, head and shoulder photograph submitted by each contestant.

Category Winners

A. Horsemanship - The winner of the horsemanship category will have the highest cumulative total of horsemanship scores received in the two horsemanship go-rounds.

B. Speech - The winner of the speech award will have the highest cumulative total speech score.

C. Photogenic - The winner of the photogenic award will have the highest cumulative total photogenic score.

D. Miss Congeniality - votes cast by contestants will select the winner of the Miss Congeniality award.

E. The contestant receiving the highest grand total score for the pageant shall be crowned Miss Wapello Rodeo. That contestant receiving the second highest grand total shall be first runner-up. That contestant receiving the third highest grand total shall be second runner-up.

F. Ties for category winners will be broken by referring back to judge #1. If a tie still remains, judge #2's score will be used...and so on until the tie is broken.

Pageant Divisions

Appearance - The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

A. Attractiveness

B. Grooming, to include neatness and cleanliness in every details, such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots, and other wearing apparel. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a young lady to be considered as Miss Teen Rodeo Iowa.

- a. The appearance of a contestant's horse is a reflection upon herself. Judges will take into consideration during the horsemanship portion of the pageant the grooming of the contestant's horse and the cleanliness of her tack and equipment.
- C. Photogenic Quality - Judges will have a head and shoulder picture to study of each contestant. A young lady's strength of character and personality are reflected strongly in a wholesome appearance.
- D. Poise and Posture - lady-like behavior in every situation.
- E. Knowledge of Proper Western Attire - Contestants should be aware of what is fashionable western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination. Judges will be observing how a contestant's clothes fit and suit her personality. It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination displayed by the contestant. You are encouraged to mix and match outfits and may wear an outfit more than once.

Personality - The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- A. Intelligence, good common sense.
- B. Education - conversational ability in rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
- C. Attractiveness - Not necessarily to mean beauty in this sense, but rather should note whether the contestant radiates self-confidence without making an issue out of it. She should also show maturity, high moral standards, sincerity and integrity.
- D. Personality Reflections - to include the contestants style of attire, overall appearance, genuine interest in other people, ability to project one's personality. Also to be considered are a sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire and enthusiasm with a happy outlook on life in general.
- E. Promptness at keeping pageant schedule.

Horsemanship - The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- A. Control of mount and the way any situation that may occur is handled.
- B. Balance, the ability to sit a saddle.
- C. Position of hands, feet, and seat.
- D. Mounting and dismounting
- E. The understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged, not the horse.
- F. There will be two go-rounds of competition. Patterns to be used will be selected at the time of competition from the diagrams provided in the entry confirmation packet. Discretion of pageant committee and judges will prevail due to arena conditions. Contestants will be required to carry a flag and/or perform additional maneuvers on horseback. Contestants will also be required to do a queen's run following the completion of one of the patterns. Any changes or alterations to the horsemanship patterns will be announced to the contestants before the horsemanship competition begins. The reigning Miss Teen Rodeo Iowa will demonstrate the patterns.
- G. Contestants will be required to dismount and answer questions following the riding of one pattern and will be required to remount and ride from the arena.
- H. No stud horses will be allowed.
- I. All equipment should be clean and in good working order. Contestants should use split reins with a bit or hackamore. Pageant personnel and judges reserve the right to disallow any equipment they feel is inhumane. Tie-downs and spurs are optional. You will need a flag boot also.

J. Contestants are required to be mounted and will ride in the Saturday night rodeo grand entry and rodeo parade on Saturday morning. These events will not be judged.

K. No one other than a contestant, judge, or pageant personnel will be allowed in the horsemanship area during the competition. There will be no one on and/or warming up the contestants' horses during the pageant and contestant will be disqualified for doing so.

List any honors/awards you have received:

List your rodeo related experiences:

Tell us about the horse you chose and why you chose this one:

Include a 250 word essay describing why you deserve to be selected to represent the Wapello FFA/PRCA Rodeo as the first Miss Wapello Rodeo.